Our panel

Glen Ackerman, MD, FAAN founded and directed the Parkinson's Disease Clinic at MSU, where he was the Director of the MSU Neurology clinic, until 2016. Currently, he is a neurohospitalist at Munson Medical Center and a member of the PNN Board.

Andrew Cole, MD is a Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Specialist in Traverse City. He is employed by Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation Hospital and practices out of Neuromuscular & Rehabilitation Associates in Traverse City.

Laura Melbourne, RN is a retired registered nurse with 36 years of full-time experience. She is a support group facilitator, who offers help for caregivers of those with Parkinson's.

April Missias, MA, is the director of Leelanau County Senior Services.

Today's help

Our Forum Exhibitors are chosen for the “help” that they can provide. Here are a few special highlights:

- Try three types of new activities at the Life Beyond Barriers courtyard exhibit.
- Join the Duopa discussion at the AbbVie post-conference session, in the Bay Room.
- Need a blood pressure check? Get one free at the Kalkaska Memorial Health exhibit.
- Brick Wheels' courtyard exhibit is the place to demo all types of adult bikes: recumbents, trikes, electric-assist, and step-through frames!
- Talk with Lauren at the Michael J. Fox Foundation exhibit to learn about the latest research and clinical studies about PD.
- “Can you hear me now?” Assistive hearing devices available at the Parkinson's Network North exhibit table.
- The Hagerty Center is wheelchair accessible.
